Log files

The Log files section is divided into 4 areas. It is recommended not to enable this section for all Users, as it could lead to confusion.

The Date can be freely selected, however the logs are Deleted after a certain period.

System

Here you can find, for example, information about the ORDER export

Import

The status of the import is listed here.

Employee

The Devices of the Employee are listed and the Promotions performed on them can be tracked here.

E-Mail

Triggered e-mails are listed here with their shipping status.

To view a log file, you can either download it using the Save button:

Alternatively, click on a text log file and it will open directly in the browser window.
