Product recommendations

Required licence: AI Module

Product recommendations are determined based on products already purchased or obtained.

Basic configuration - Settings - "AI: Product recommendations"

- Select your preferred source. You can choose between
  - Documents (default)
  - DeDeSales Orders

Basic configuration - Settings - "AI: Product recommendations - Probability"

- Probability in %
- Enter the value here between 0 and 100.

Generation of recommendation data

- Calculation takes place (except for the initial generation) weekly on Sunday nights.
- The basis for determination is all orders of all customers (Documents or DeDeSales Orders).
- Only results whose probability corresponds at least to the configured value are considered.
